Salem is also blessed with natural beauty and sits at the foot of the Yercaud Hills. Yercaud, 1515 metres above sea level, is a preferred destination and Yercaud Lake, surrounded by dense forests, is serene spot. Adventure lovers can go hiking in these forests, while tourists with gentler interests can enjoy boating on the Emerald lake at the TTDC boat house. Other tourist attractions include Kiliyur Falls that drops from a height of 300 feet from Yercaud Lake, Anna Park, home to a range of natural plants and trees. The Lady's Seat, a well-known viewpoint, overlooks the winding ghat road and offers a spectacular view of Mettur Dam and Salem town. A

The Abhimugesvarar Temple is a specimen of Dravidian architecture. The Bhagavatha Padithurai Ghat on the Cauvery is believed to wash off a person's sins. These places are visited by thousands during the Mahamaham fair. The Gowthameswarar Temple, devoted to Yagnabhaveetheswar and his companion Sundaranayagi, is another famous site. The Kanchi Kamakoti Peetham Mutt, founded by Sri Adi Sankara in 482 BC is a must-visit. The Nageswarar Temple here is among the most notable Shiva temples while the Venkatachalapathy Swamy Temple, just two kilometres from Kumbakonam, is significant for Vaishnavites. Another significance here are

The Thirumalai Nayakar Mahal, a palace constructed in the mid-17th century by Thirumalai Nayak is another tourist attraction. Designed by an Italian architect, it is an exquisite amalgamation of Dravidian and European architecture with subtle influences of the Indo-Saracenic style. St. Mary's Cathedral Church is famed for its architecture. Built in the Roman style, the church is unique with European architecture on the outside façade and classically Indian interiors with bright-coloured walls. The Gandhi Museum in the famous 17th century Tamukkam Palace is one of the most dedicated Gandhi Sangrahalayas in India. The exhibits
